2. The High Council of Justice of Georgia shall compile a list of persons who have passed the exam.

Law of Georgia No 970 of 29 December 2004 - LHG I, No 6, 19.1.2005, Art.55

Article 42 - First General Meeting of the Bar Association and the Bar Exam

1. After conducting first two exams, but not later than 1 March 2005, the High Council of Justice of Georgia shall convene the constitutive meeting of the Bar Association. The right to participate in the constitutive meeting may be exercised by a person who:

a) requests in writing to join the Bar Association, and submits a relevant application to the High Council of Justice of Georgia not later than 31 January 2005;

a) meets the requirements of Article 10 of this Law.

2. The High Council of Justice of Georgia shall, on the basis of submitted applications, make and publish, before 15 February 2005, the list of persons who have the right to participate in the constitutive meeting. Applicants not included in the list of participants of the constitutive meeting may appeal the decision of the High Council of Justice of Georgia to a court within five days after its publication.

3. The constitutive meeting shall be duly constituted if attended by more than half of the persons who have the right to participate in the constitutive meeting and who have taken the oath of a lawyer in the manner determined by the law. Decisions at the constitutive meeting shall be made by a majority of the members present, except for the case provided for in paragraph 10 of this article. The number of the attending members shall be counted before each vote.

4. The Secretary of the High Council of Justice of Georgia shall open the constitutive meeting. Before the election of the chairperson, the oldest attending member shall preside over the constitutive meeting.

5. The oldest member shall read the oath of a lawyer. After the text has been read, the attending members shall pronounce 'I swear' and sign the text of the oath. A person who, due to their ideology refuses to take the oath, shall write a statement.

6. The constitutive meeting shall elect the vote counting commission composed of 11 members. The chairperson of the commission shall be elected by the commission from among its members. The vote counting commission shall ensure the entry in the ballot papers of the names of candidates nominated for leading positions and for the membership of bodies to be elected at the constitutive meeting, and distribute the ballot papers among the members of the General Meeting.

7. Any participant of the constitutive meeting may nominate a candidate for the chairperson of the Bar Association, and for the membership of the Executive Board, Ethics Commission and Audit Commission.

8. The same person may be nominated as a candidate for membership of the Executive Board, Ethics Commission and Audit Commission.

9. Before being put to the vote, each candidate nominated for the elective body shall announce their consent to run as a candidate. If a person has been simultaneously nominated as a candidate for membership in two or all three bodies, he/she shall announce their wish and consent to run as a member of only one body and, consequently, his/her candidacy shall be included only in one ballot paper.

10. A candidate shall be deemed elected if he/she obtains a majority of votes of the members participating in the vote, but not less than 35 votes. Candidates with an equal number of votes shall be put to repeat voting if the number of such candidates exceeds the number of the candidates to be elected. If as a result of the vote the number of the vacancies of the relevant bodies required by law has not been filled, a repeat vote shall be held among the candidates with the best results, but with less than 35 votes, and the number of the candidates shall be equal to the number of members to be elected. If more candidates than required obtain equal best results, or if several candidates following the one with the best results receive an equal number of votes, all the candidates shall be put to a repeat vote. If after two rounds of voting candidates fail to receive the minimum number of votes sufficient to fill the vacancies in the bodies provided for by law, a re-run vote shall be held.

11. The vote counting commission shall draw up the results of a vote in a protocol, which shall be signed by the chairperson and all members of the commission. The chairperson of the vote counting commission shall announce the final results at the General Meeting.
